Dr. Ezekiel Macham

2010 ANOG Image & Service Award Recipient

Dr. Ezekiel Macham was born February 15, 1955 and hailed from Butura in Bokkos local government area of Plateau State, Nigeria

Dr. Macham currently works with the Dekalb County Public School in Georgia and his academic qualifications and experience:

- PhD in International Affairs and Development from Clark Atlanta University.
- Masters Degree in Agricultural Extension and Technical Services from Tuskegee University.
- Bachelors Degree in Agricultural Business Education at the prestigious Tuskegee University, Tuskegee, Alabama
- Diploma, HND Irrigation Agronomy Ahmadu Bello University, Bakura, Nigeria
- Project Manager Lower Benue River Basin Development Authority Longkat and Bokkos Nigeria

Dr. Macham's love for selfless community services can be trailed back home to Nigeria where he designed dams and irrigation canals for Lower Benue River Basin Development Authority for the benefit of the community. While in the US, Dr. Macham's passion for community service continues where he served or currently serving the Nigerian community in the following areas:

- Served for two terms as the President of the Alliance of Nigerian Organizations in Georgia (ANOG), working tirelessly to bring Nigerians in Georgia under one umbrella, promoting unity and togetherness irrespective of ethnic or language background. Under his leadership, Dr. Ezekiel Macham:
    a. Led ANOG for 7 years in uniting the community as one unified body where issues of common course were pursued with various organizations and governmental entities.
    b. Led several initiatives and paved the way for having a "Nigeria House" where all Nigerians can coagulate and exchanged ideas in Atlanta, making the community more closely knit.
    c. Led a powerful delegation to Delta airlines to fight for improved customer service for flights to Nigeria.
    d. Led a Nigerian delegation to appear on CNN to defend the law-abiding, and anti-terrorist stance of the Nigerian community in USA
- Served for one term as the Chairman/CEO NICORE, a core group of Nigerian professionals in Atlanta, promoting economic emancipation and progress of Nigerians in Georgia.
- Served as President of Zumunta Association of Atlanta, bringing together all members for cooperation and common goals.
- Served as the chairman conflict committee of Zumunta Association USA Inc. where he led the organization in pursuit of peace initiatives following conflicts in the North.
- Serves as the President of Zumunta Association USA Inc.
- Serves as Board Member of Nigerians in Diaspora Organization (NIDOA), empowering, coordinating and fighting the cause of all Nigerians in Diaspora in North America.

Dr. Macham is happily married to Mrs. Rhoda Macham and blessed with five children: Christiana, Makwal, Bwefuk, Lilian and Maram. He is also blessed with two grandchildren: Amari Macham and Caleb Budu